Dear Board of Oriental Medicine,

Enclosed is my application to receive licensure in Nevada for Oriental Medicine. I believe that when you see my training and work history, you might agree that I would be an excellent reflection of what this Board stands for.

I officially began my Acupuncture training on April 1, 1998, in Tahoe City, California under the apprenticeship of Stephen Barr, Lac., through the California Acupuncture Board Apprenticeship Program. I did my Chinese Herbal training under Richard Liao through the Academy of Chinese Culture & Health Sciences in Oakland, California. I completed my apprenticeship officially in April 2003, with Theoretical, Didactic, and Clinical training totaling 5913.5 hours, including 391 Chinese Herbology hours. I passed my California Acupuncture licensing exam on 08/29/03 (#9376) and am still currently licensed. I passed both the Acupuncture and Chinese Herbology licensing exams with NCCAOM on 8/26/04, subsequently combining them for DOM (#24339), and am still currently licensed. I passed my Nevada Advanced Practitioner of Homeopathy licensing exam in 01/2004 (#A0309), and am still licensed.

A tiny bit about me:

My path to acupuncture medicine was purely serendipitous and very circuitous! Two weeks before graduating from high school, my Dad passed away unexpectedly. Though I went off to college, Humboldt State University in California as planned, I went with my world turned upside down. I did complete 100 units, but I couldn't regain my footing and ultimately dropped out of college because it seemed to not matter. In fact, nothing seemed to matter and life felt unsafe, having realized that everyone I loved was going to die. It was certainly a break-open existential crisis that left me reeling. By my late 20's, I got into therapy which helped me deal more effectively with grief.

I came to acupuncture for some physical issues in my mid-30's and found, to my surprise, that it helped me understand myself, my symptoms, and life in ways that were incredibly helpful. I finally found meaning to it all! My acupuncturist invited me to apprentice with him and so it began. Now, 25 years later I am more grateful than ever for the winding journey and the person I have become in the process. Using all the tools I have learned and being with clients in ways that help them heal physically, emotionally, mentally, and spiritually has been mutually beneficial.

My mentor told me, "You're a beginner for the first 20 years." So true. In the years since my initial apprenticeship with my mentor, Stephen Barr, who was primarily a 5 Elements practitioner trained by JR Worseley, I have continued to hone my skills and add to my repertoire. Certainly, I utilize traditional Chinese medicine and herbology, as well as Dr. Zhu's Scalp Acupuncture and Bob Doane's DNA. Over the course of the last 20 years, I have taken hundreds of hours of CEU's in all different methods and techniques to treat the whole person because every person is unique. I have included a list of these courses, the CEU's earned, and the dates I took them.

While I began my career in California and continue to maintain my licensure there, I married and moved to Reno, Nevada. And though I was licensed under the NCCAOM, I did not possess the 4-year bachelor's degree required for licensure under the Nevada Board of Oriental Medicine. Under my license with the Nevada Homeopathic Medical Board, my Approved Protocol has enabled me to practice the specific actions of my in-depth training, without calling it acupuncture. I have never advertised myself in Nevada as an Acupuncturist. For 20 years, I have had a successful practice helping many people heal from all sorts of things. I am not a beginner anymore.

Though I realize that I do not have the bachelor's degree that I set out to attain 45 years ago, I hope you can see that it hasn't hindered my ability to utilize traditional Oriental medicine skills and wisdom, synthesized with a lot of life lessons, an ongoing passion for pertinent continued education and my own good heart toward helping people. I believe that I would be a strong and positive addition to the practice of Oriental Medicine in Nevada and I would be so grateful to have the opportunity to become licensed here.

Under two of the criteria of NRS 634A.140, I hope to have met the requirements. Please consider these:

NRS 634A.140 Issuance of license to practice as doctor of Oriental medicine.

2. Has:

- (a) Successfully completed a 4-year program of study, or its equivalent, in Oriental medicine at a school or college of Oriental medicine that is approved by the Board;
- (b) Lawfully practiced Oriental medicine in another state or foreign country for at least 4 years;
- (c) Passed an investigation of his or her background and personal history conducted by the Board; and
- (d) Passed the examinations required by NRS 634A.120.

I believe I have satisfied the requirements of NRS 634A.140, starting my practice in Tahoe City, California at the Healing Arts Center in August 2003. Once I was licensed under NCCAOM and the Nevada Homeopathic Medical Board in August 2004, I began seeing clients in Reno, NV, too. I continued to see clients in California over the next 4 years with decreasing frequency as I built my practice in Reno. Occasionally, I will still treat a client in California and I keep my California Licensed Acupuncture license current.

NRS 634A.140 Issuance of license to practice as doctor of Oriental medicine.

3. The Board may issue a license to practice as a doctor of Oriental medicine to an applicant who:

(a) Has:

(1) Successfully completed a program in Oriental medicine from a school or college of Oriental medicine accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine or its successor organization before January 1, 2008, that included the study of herbology;

(2) Practiced Oriental medicine pursuant to the laws of another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or foreign country for at least 6 of the 8 years immediately preceding the date of the application;

(3) Passed an investigation of his or her background and personal history conducted by the Board; and

(4) Passed the examinations required by NRS 634A.120; and

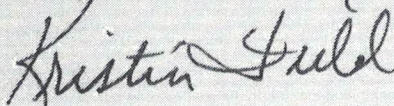

(b) Holds a current certification in Oriental medicine issued by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine or its successor organization.

(Added to NRS by 1973, 637; A 1975, 234, 1814; 1981, 1290; 1991, 1128; 2001, 1105, 2416; 2019, 1599)

I have satisfied the requirements of NRS 634A.140, with a small exception. Specifically, under NRS 634A.140 3.a (2), I am hoping my practice for the past nearly 19 years in Reno, NV will more than satisfy the requirement:

(2) Practiced Oriental medicine pursuant to the laws of another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or foreign country for at least 6 of the 8 years immediately preceding the date of the application;

Thank you kindly for your consideration,

Kristin Field
